The association also telegraphed as follows:

To the Millers' Association of Minneapolis: At a meeting of the millers of this city to-day, it was resolved that owing to the unwarranted condition of the wheat market, which is manipulated in the interest of speculators and against all legitimate business, we believe it for the interest of the millers of the country to make common cause and shut down their mills until the price of wheat shall be at a figure to compete with the markets of the world. All mills here have shut down and invite your coöperation. EDW'D SANDERSON, Pres't.

He said "the Chinese must go," and commenced shooting at them, striking one Chinaman in the shoulder. A bystander interfered when the cowboy threatened to shoot him. Several shots were exchanged without effect. He tried then to run Chinamen out of a restaurant, but citizens interfered and firing became lively, Edwards being riddled with bullets; no others injured.

WASHINGTON CITY.

A Brilliant Scheme.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—Tribune's Washington special: It has been published on what is believed to be reliable authority, that a syndicate or combination has been formed to secure control of large star routes in the west known as "October lettings" by buying off the lowest bidders when a contract has been awarded, or by members of the syndicate bidding at various amounts on routes and then the lower ones declining to contract until the government is forced to pay a large sum for the performance of the work with an immense profit to the combination. The schemes have already become known at the postoffice department and is exciting considerable discussion. It is stated that there is not at present any law to protect the government against any such frauds, but that as soon as possible after the assembling of congress an effort will be made to have an act passed giving the postmaster-general or his second assistant the peremptory power, on discovering any indication of fraud, to annul the contract and place temporary service on the route and advertise for a new contractor. The department intends to fight and break up, if possible, any such combinations.

Mahone Prepared for the Election.

Senator Mahone has left for Virginia with a full pocket, northern republicans having contributed money to assist in paying the poll tax of republican negroes, and it is understood Gov. Jewell has deposited a considerable fund to the credit of the readjusters. Money has been freely contributed, especially as on the result in Virginia will depend the status of the U. S. senate.

MacVeagh's Defense.

MacVeagh states that he long ago declared that he would prepare the star route cases for court and then drop them; that he never had any intention of going beyond the grand jury with them, and in pursuance of this plan he employed eminent counsel for the prosecution; therefore it remains that he cannot justly be charged with abandoning the cases or shirking duty in insisting upon leaving the cabinet.

Reduced Mail Service.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—The mail route between Helena and Missoula, Montana, is reduced to the original contract price, $6250, from $18,739. The route from Butte City to New Chicago, Montana, is reduced to $1215 from $12,627.

Treasury Statement.

Standard silver dollars in the treasury, $66,576,378; silver certificates outstanding or in circulation, $66,327,670, leaving 148,708 standard silver dollars available beyond the amount held for redemption certificates. Owing to the exceeding small sum of silver dollars available for the ordinary business of the department, it has become necessary to suspend the exchange of silver certificates for gold coin or bullion. The treasury received $8,281,800 in U. S. bonds for redemption under the 105th call. The annual interest charge on U. S. bonds outstanding to-day is $60,962,245.

Presidential Inspection.

President Arthur to-day made a careful inspection of the executive mansion.

Arthur's Annoyance.

The president with a great many others has been annoyed at the apparent delay in the star route prosecutions and to-day sent for one of the persons actively connected with the prosecution, and is reported to have said to him in substance that he did not wish any further delay in this matter. There was an impression becoming current that counsel were dilly-dallying and he desired to have the cases immediately pressed to trial and conviction if the government had any case, and if it did not have any case he desired to acknowledge it and let the matter drop.

Washington Notes.

The president to-day commissioned Strathan postmaster of Lynchburg, Va., vice Wilson suspended, under the tenure of office law.

President Arthur goes to New York to-morrow and will not return until the middle or last of next week. He will then go direct to the White House and remain there. He will not go to the soldiers' home. When at the White House yesterday he selected his room in the northwestern portion of the house.

Paymaster General Brown in his annual report gives receipts as $13,530,767 all accounted for. Received during fiscal year for soldiers' deposits, $524,112, an increase of $[illegible] over previous year.

Captain Francis M. Ramsey has been assigned to duty as superintendent of the U. S. naval academy, and Admiral Rodgers will be retired.

Star route reductions since the 4th of March are about a million dollars.

Commissioner of agriculture Loring delivered an address on advanced agriculture in America at the national exhibitors' exposition.

Lorenzo Montufar, secretary of war of Guatemala, special envoy to convey in person the sympathy and condolence of his government and people to the United States upon the death of President Garfield, to-day called upon President Arthur in fulfillment of his mission. He was accompanied by Dr. Loring, minister of the United States to Central America, and by Secretary Blaine.

A part of the distinguished men, consisting in part of Secretaries Blaine and Windom, Senators Bayard, Davis and McPherson, and Augustus Schell, W. H. Barnum, Gen. Sickles and Gov. Hamilton, of Maryland, have gone to West Virginia to examine some undeveloped lands with a view of making investments.

The comptroller of the currency has appointed Frederick Frelinghuysen receiver of the Mechanics' National Bank at Newark, and Lewis Price assistant receiver.

The commissioners appointed to examine 200 miles of the Northern Pacific railroad in Washington territory, have been directed to examine an additional section of 200 miles, extending eastward into Idaho.

Four inches of mud, drizzling rain, and an attendance of 1200 persons, were the features of the opening fall meeting of the National Fair Association.

Lord Beaconsfield edited an amateur journal when only twelve years of age. Mark Twain, according to his own account, edited one issue of a weekly paper at the age of thirteen. He tells us that he got 33 new subscribers, and narrowly escaped two libel suits. Robert Southey was expelled from school for writing a satirical article on corporal punishment. In each of these three instances the child was father to the man.

The New York Mail, belonging to Cyrus W. Field, publishes a complete list of the donors to the fund for the widow and children of the assassinated president, James A. Garfield. The list of names fills a whole broad side of the Mail. Thirty men gave $5000 each, making $150,000; 89 men gave $1000; five gave $2500 to $2000; 83 gave $500 apiece. A great many gave $100 or $50. The total amount donated was $350,346.

A "stalwart" editor, as a rule, is a person "who does not understand the difference between a man who conducts a legitimate newspaper business and one who uses a newspaper as a step-ladder in the scramble for offices he doesn't deserve and should not get."

FOREIGN NEWS.

Large Conservative Gains made in English Elections.

GEORGE GRANVILLE BRADLEY SUCCEEDS DEAN STANLEY.

Sexton will take Editorial Charge of United Ireland—Another Plot to Demolish the Czar—Full Returns from the German Election.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

LONDON, Nov. 2.—The municipal elections throughout England and Wales in a great many cases show important conservative gains. The success of conservatives is especially observable in towns where Irish oppressed liberals reside.

Quarreling over Gladstone.

The Daily News, alluding to the Standard's statement in regard to Gladstone, says they are reckless conferences from those long familiar with a republic.

Rumor Contradicted.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—Relative to rumored ministerial changes, Gladstone, in replying to a correspondent, telegraphs as follows: "There is nothing of any kind to be added to my public declaration on this subject." This refers to Gladstone's speech at Leeds, October 7th, when he said it was not for him whose life was drawing to its inevitable close to anticipate the long future they desired for him, but he would leave the affairs of the country in the hands of men whom all could place confidence in.

The Standard's statements regarding the retirement of Gladstone are pronounced by the Pall Mall Gazette as wholly groundless.

Dean Stanley's Successor.

Rev. George Granville Bradley has been installed as dean of Westminster.

Resolution of Satisfaction.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—The International Arbitration and Peace Association passed a resolution recording its satisfaction with the salutation of the English flag at Yorktown. Such an incident, the resolution says, is unparalleled in history, and must ever remain of deep international interest. It regards the act as weighty and significant testimony to the eternal oblivion of any animosity resulting from the war of independence, and as an emphatic expression of the brotherly love existing between England and America.

A Tribute to America.

A novel feature of the lord mayor's procession will be a banner of the United States escorted by a guard of honor.

The English Elections.

The conservative gain in municipal elections is 86, liberal gain 65. The most important change is at Stanley Bridge, where the conservatives gained six seats. They also gained four in Oldham three in Cardiff, three in Liverpool. The foregoing results are probably due to the Irish vote. Conservative gains are pretty evenly distributed among towns of large Irish population and those purely English.

In connection with the prevention of land league meetings at East End, London, the Scotland yard authorities state they have not ordered interference with meetings. Subordinates acted in the matter on their own responsibility.

Gladstone Demolished.

LONDON, Nov. 2.—The secretary of the Liverpool branch league telegraphed to Gladstone: "The elections yesterday show how your resources of civilization are appreciated by 150,000 Irish citizens."

Council Summoned.

LONDON, Nov. 2.—A cabinet council has been summoned to meet early next week.

Heavy Snow Storms.

Heavy snow storms and gales are reported throughout England, and in several parts of the middle counties two feet of snow is on the ground.

Denies the Statement.

LONDON, Nov. 2.—The Times denies that the government has decided to enter on more direct relations with the Vatican.

Return the Call.

The emperor and empress of Austria, crown prince and princess, Prince Leopold of Bavaria and Princess Grizella will in May next return the visit of the king and queen of Italy.

A Wrong Statement.

The Pall Mall Gazette says there is no truth whatever in the statement that there is a large amount of money in the Bank of England deposited to the credit of the confederate government and available for the payment of confederate bonds. We believe it does not hold a single penny, and doubt whether there is any such money in any bank in this country. The whole story is a gross fabrication and likely to produce a speculation that has no substantial foundation.

Death from Anxiety.

Truth says the late Baron James Rothschild incurred losses on the bourse in October amounting to 8,000,000 francs, and his anxiety caused the bursting of an aneurism.

Will let Blaine Alone.

LIVERPOOL, Nov. 2.—The Courier's London special has good authority for stating that Lord Granville, British foreign secretary, has drawn up no reply to Secretary Blaine's note relative to the Panama canal and Monroe doctrine. There has been, it says, an exchange of views between Granville and the French minister of foreign affairs, but no pointed reply is likely to be made.

Helping a Heretic.

EDINBURGH, Nov. 2.—Influential supporters of Prof. Robertson Smith, who was requested to suspend teaching his classes at Aberdeen university, yesterday presented him with books valued at £1000. It was announced that a sum had been raised sufficient to procure Prof. Smith a larger salary than he received before ousted from the Aberdeen professorship.

Items from Ireland.

DUBLIN, Nov. 1.—A military force was sent to Belmullet from Ballintale to quell disturbances to-day. Police were drafted from all quarters and a workhouse converted into a barracks.

Archbishop Tuam, in a sermon on All Saints' day condemned the doctrines of "no rent" in unsparing language.

The first decision under the land act was given at Monaghan to-day. The commissioners, after viewing the holding in the case, reduced the rent by fifty shillings for the next fifteen years.

Sexton was released from prison on account of ill health.

The government has discovered the delinquent who conveyed Parnell's last manifesto from the Kilmainham jail.

Constable Delaney has been committed for trial for an unprovoked assault by him during the recent disturbances in Dublin.

PARIS, Nov. 2.—Egan states that substantial support continues to be received from America and Australia. The land league he says does not intend to establish a permanent centre in France. Ligue is here.

DUBLIN, Nov. 2.—Parnell was unanimously elected chairman of the Cork chamber of commerce.

The jail at Clonmel is fitted up for the reception of suspects. Further arrests are contemplated.

In consequence of recent events connected with Kilmainham jail showing great laxity in the management in the prison, rules will be applied more strictly. A sweeping change is made in the official staff. Some prisoners removed elsewhere. Parnell and Dillon will remain. Parnell is in usual health.

LONDON, Nov. 2.—It is stated Sexton has been given to understand he is to go to France as a condition of his release from prison.

Disturbances continue at Belmullet, county Mayo. Thus far four persons wounded in the affray Thursday last are dead, and six more deaths are expected. Two hundred military and 200 police are on the spot. Roads leading to Aglow are blockaded with stones, and a bridge has been broken for the purpose of impeding the movements of military.

Gilhooley, secretary of Bantry, county Cork, branch of the league has been arrested.

The reduction of rent by the first decision under the land act at Monaghan has considerably amended the rent holdings, being only six guineas. Application has been made to the Dublin land court to fix a rent heading in Cork where the valuation is 27 pounds and rent 1.3 pounds. Justice O'Hagan said that the figures were startling.

Failure of Treaty Negotiations.

LONDON, Nov. 2.—Negotiations for a commercial treaty with France fails, and British commissioners are coming home. French offers fall far short of a point at which a compromise might be entertained. The principal difference is relative to cotton. It is thought Gambetta's ministry will prove more reasonable than the present one.

Gambetta's Statement.

PARIS, Nov. 2.—It is expected Gambetta will shortly make an important statement regarding his policy, either during debate in interpolation with reference to the government's Tunisian policy or previously at a meeting of the majority.

An Important Capture.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 2.—The police have just made an important capture. Suspicion having been directed to the inmates of a house in a respectable quarter of the city, the police surrounded the place at night, burst open doors, and seized a man and woman who were preparing dangerous explosives. Socialist pamphlets were found in the rooms. The man is a student of the school of mines.

Threats from Nihilists.

Last week a number of nihilist proclamations were distributed about the city and several copies thrown into the barracks of the imperial guards. It is stated that the czar has lately received many threatening letters.

Berlin Notes.

BERLIN, Nov. 1.—The public prosecutor began action to-day against the editor and publisher of the Reichsherold, a paper conducted by Henrici, a notorious anti-Semite, on account of a poem in it approving the persecution of the Jews.

The passing of the tobacco monopoly and state insurance bills is rendered practically impossible in view of the result of the election.

Trouble with the Jews.

BERLIN, Nov. 2.—Jews here instituted proceedings against Dr. Stoecker for the part he is taking in stirring up people against the Jews.

Complete Returns from Germany.

BERLIN, Nov. 1.—Correct and complete returns from 365 election districts show that of the successful candidates 44 are conservatives, 25 free conservatives, 100 members of center party, 50 national liberals, 21 secessionists, 33 progressists, 8 members party of the people, 15 Poles and 17 particularists and protesters. The politics of four of the successful candidates are not definite. One hundred second ballots were necessary.

The War in Tunis.

TUNIS, Nov. 1.—The failure to surround the Arabs by the advance to Kairwan involves an important change in the winter campaign. Saussier will assume command of General Forgemol's column encamped south of Kairwan and march to Gafsa. Generals Philibert, Logerot and Sabbatier will execute combined movement on the coast. General Etienne will be permanently stationed at Kairwan and will protect the temporary railway to Susa. A small flying column in the north will be reinforced and march from Kairwan into the provinces of Sakell and Derid in the direction of Tripoli.

Geographical Meeting.

LONDON, Nov. 2.—The first meeting of the Geographical Society will be devoted entirely to Arctic matters. The subjects for discussion will be the whereabouts of Leigh Smith, who set out early in the summer for Franz Josef's land, and has not yet returned; also the Dutch expedition of Willem Barentz, supposed to be caught in the ice, north of the neighborhood of Spitzbergen, the fate of the Jeannette and proposed international search expedition next summer, and the scheme of polar observatories. Capt. Adams, an Arctic whaler, says of his recent voyaging, that had he not been on a whaling voyage he should have reached Dease and Simpson straits and made the northwest passage. "I believe," he said, "the northwest passage can be made by way of Peel sound and by that way only, and that if Franklin's vessels had been steamers, he would have made it in 1848. I may myself live to go into Lancaster sound and report myself at Honolulu."

Reports Exaggerated.

PARIS, Nov. 2.—Cabinet counsel declare all reports of sickness in the army in Tunis exaggerated.

Too Skeptical.

CAIRO, Egypt, Nov. 2.—The editor of a French paper, the Egypte, suppressed for calling Mahomet a false prophet placed himself under protection of the French consul, owing to the sheiks having voted his death. By advice of the consul the editor returns to France.

Will Support Zorrillas.

MADRID, Nov. 2.—Advanced democratic members of the chamber of deputies decide to support Zorrillas' progressive and policy, although Manitis and friends are organizing a minority party against this course. News papers state that the chamber of deputies will, if necessary, sit twice a day to permit a discussion of the budget before the 24th of December.

Drowned at Sea.

BORDEAUX, Nov. 2.—By the sinking of a ship's boat at Pauma recently 10 persons were drowned.

Floods in Eastern Austria.

VIENNA, Nov. 2.—Floods in Dalmatia and Croatia have caused the river Kerka to burst its bounds, and houses are inundated, crops damaged, roads submerged and postal communications suspended. Rain continues and water is rising.

THE IRISH LAND ACT.

The First Case under its working at the Castle Blayney Commission.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—Herald's Castle Blayney special: At last, after a struggle of two years, landlord and tenant came on Monday face to face before the judges to decide what was fair rent. The first case examined under the land act has just been decided here. Its result is a sweeping reduction, amounting altogether to £2 15s in a yearly rental of £8 10s. Two commissions are sitting, but that at Castle Blayney was more important than that at Belfast. The latter has been concerned with cases under the Ulster custom, the farmers being in a district where smaller holdings prevail, and being more likely to bring out the characteristic features of the land question. Castle Blayney is surrounded by much wretched land and minute holdings. It is the home of Molly Maguires. The coming of the commissioners attracted a number of persons to the town, and many lawyers. Commissioners Cane, Bailey and Garland sat in the court house. The first case gone into was one of the most famous which has arisen in the land. It was one in which the league triumphed far and near, as it was a case of typical hardship. The members for northeast Lancashire became sponsors for the tenant and published the circumstances throughout the press of England. The government to-day accepted the challenge. The decision was of great interest and importance.

The first tenant who thus came under the operation of the act is Patrick McAvery, of Calstro, county Monoghan on the estate of Henry Bond, an absentee landlord living in London. The holding is tenacious; rent, £8 10s. The government valuation is £6. McAvery is an intelligent young fellow, about twenty-eight years old, who after considerable wandering, having lived in the United States four years, returned to his native land and claimed possession of the holding, which his uncle then held. Since then he, as lived mostly as a railway employe in England, being, as the landlord's counsel characterized him, "an absentee tenant."

The first witness for the tenants was an unfortunately lamented failure. He was Vincent Smith, surveyor and valuator for some of the large estates in the north of Ireland, who swore he surveyed McAvery's holding last week and gave an official estimate that it was worth 10s 2d per acre, but cross-examination brought out that he made this valuation for the landlord in 1876, when he valued the holding at 13s 8d per acre. When confronted with the former figures, he said that he rendered the valuation by order of the landlord without regard to his own estimate. But as this admission convicted him of fraud in giving a false valuation, he left court discomfited and ruined as a witness in any future cause.

McAvery says that his landlord had forced him to sign an agreement contracting himself out of all benefits of the Ulster custom. This was not denied and witnesses were called to prove that McAvery's holding was too highly rented, one swearing that a tenant's right in it was worth nothing, others that it was worth about £5. The agent of the estate, however, swore that McAvery had refused £100 for his holding, and wanted £150. Some tenants swore that the land was bad and would hardly support a family, while the agent swore that it was light and sandy soil, capable of bearing good crops if acceptably farmed. Thus the issue was fairly joined. The commissioners resolved to visit the holding this morning; and then give their decisions. They therefore drove out early to-day to McAvery's holding, where a considerable number of neighboring tenants gathered, and followed curiously at their heels as they went from field to field testing the soil. They examined gathered crops and asking questions of the agent, tenant and all who were concerned. The land of his holding was certainly in a wretched condition, badly drained and really incapable of being made very valuable. Returning in the afternoon, the commission sat to hear further evidence, but nothing important was elicited. When the testimony was finished there seemed to be many doubtful points, but the commission decided to give judgment at once and reduced the rent to £6 6s, and enjoined the landlord to pay half the costs, the whole of which the tenants paid before, saving the latter five shillings, yearly. It was also revealed that the government valuation on McAvery's holding was really £7 8s, making a reduction £1 2s under Griffith's valuation.

This is a serious defeat for the landlords, but it was inevitable that the first decision should involve reductions. The decision proves Parnell's cleverness and wisdom in selecting for test cases here those in which rents were not exorbitant, but moderate, so that a decision which was at first really necessary to the success of the act would be a precedent for further decisions. It was taken for granted that landlords will appeal to chief commissioners, and the important judgment in connection with this case was a decision that both parties are to pay their own costs, which procedure will doubtless be followed in all commissions.

NOVA SCOTIA.

Shipping Notes.

HALIFAX, Nov 1.—The U. S. ship Alliance has arrived from a fruitless search for the Jeannette. Commander Wadleigh says the ship should attempt to force a passage to the east coast of Greenland without being fitted to pass at least one winter in the ice. The ice this year has been much heavier and farther to the south than usual.

The ship Jamestown, of Boston, with a cargo of lumber, was abandoned and drifted ashore at Iceland. The grass growing on the decks indicated it had been long drifting about in the ocean.

THE TURF.

A Mistaken Calling.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—A Herald London special says: Mistake has probably made his last appearance in Lorillard's colors. In the autumn handicap, where he started as favorite with Archer on his back, he could only get the fifth place to some of the worst animals in training. The Duke of Hamilton will probably buy him and put him to hurdle racing, at which branch he is expected to show more prominence, as the same owner's Boreas, although useless on the flat, became a fair performer over hurdles.

MEXICO.

A Furious Storm.

CITY OF MEXICO, Nov. 2.—In a terrible storm at Manzanillo four large vessels and all small craft in the harbor were lost. The custom house and the stores of Oetling, Sisiell & Uecamann, American consul Ruiz and others were completely destroyed. No additional loss of life is reported. The Pacific Mail steamer, due the day of the storm, had not arrived at last accounts.

Revolt in Arequipa.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—The Panama Star of October 23 with advices from Lima October 12, says: On Saturday last a cablegram was received announcing that troops in Arequipa had revolted, imprisoned Solon and his chief officers and declared in favor of Calderon. It is believed by friends of the latter here that the important departments of Bueno and Cuzco will follow. This revolt against Pierola is due to the belief that the United States intend armed intervention in behalf of Calderon's government. Calderon was married Monday last. Rumor continues to assert he meditates visiting Europe.

U. S. Consul Moore at Callao and the prefect of the port had a misunderstanding the other day, during which the latter considered he was treated discourteously. He reported the matter to General Hurlbut, who in turn referred it to Admiral Lynch. Inquiry was held and resulted in a high Chilian official calling on Moore to explain that no discourtesy was intended.

A Santiago paper says: Rumor increases in strength that our government intends to prolong indefinitely the occupation of Peru, and to organize its administration better than at present. The military power is to be supplemented by a civil one, which will be sustained by a military force sufficiently strong to crush all armed resistance.

DeLesseps' Canal.

NEWS NOTES FROM SCIO.

OCCASIONAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE OREGONIAN.]

SCIO, Nov. 1, 1881.

Not as much fall grain as usual sown.

Our merchants speak encouragingly of business, and are carrying heavy stocks of winter goods.

About 20,000 bushels of grain has been shipped from this point, and the Scio mills warehouse is as full as it will hold.

The agent, Mr. C. M. Vaile, has moved over to West Scio on the narrow gauge. The telegraph line into Scio is in charge of Messrs. Johnson & Lane.

The bridge across the north fork of the Santiam is finished and has been received by the railroad company. One pier settled 16 inches during the recent rise.

The forks of the Santiam will pay tribute to Mr. Villard now. About 20,000 bushels of wheat remain in the hands of farmers on account of early rains near here.

Messrs. Ray, Thatcher and Gilfrease, young men living near here, have been taken to Albany on a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon, the act having been committed several weeks ago while all parties were on a spree.

The city council refused license to two saloons here recently. Their manner of conducting business brought public opinion against them, and hence the action of the council. It is expected license will be refused the third at the next meeting. Temperance people had very little to do with the move. However, the blue ribbon flourishes here and has programme meetings every month.

C. B. 83, Hoover, in relation to taking up sawlogs in Snake river.

C. B. 81, Kerns, to give certain persons the right to vote.

Substitute for C. B. 70, relating to gambling, including horse-racing; passed.

H. B. 85, Evans, amending an act relating to foreign corporations holding real estate; passed.

H. B. 86, substitute for H. J. R. 14, authorizing chairman of house legislative committee to administer oaths in legislative investigations; passed.

HOUSE.

Petition presented from citizens of Chehalis asking for temperance legislation.

The fees and costs bill was partly considered by committee of the whole, Kuhn in the chair.

C. B. 62, to legalize county roads.

Both houses then took a recess.

Very little business was transacted in either house this afternoon, with the exception of C. B. 16, for the relief of the Oregon school for deaf mutes, which passed the lower house.

At 3 P. M. the house adjourned and Mrs. Duniway proceeded to address the legislative body and a large audience which was present in the lobby, in which there were probably 100 ladies. The address was listened to with marked attention throughout, and at the close Hon. W. H. White, of Seattle, being loudly called for, came forward, and in a few eloquent and telling remarks upheld the cause of woman suffrage on the simple grounds of justice and right. Loud applause followed his remarks.

SUPREME COURT.

The court met at 10 o'clock A. M., a full bench being present.

A. R. Willis, respondent, vs. G. W. Hoover, appellant; appeal from Douglas county. Decision of the lower court affirmed. Opinion by Lord, C. J.

SYLLABUS.

Wagers on the result of public elections are illegal and void upon grounds of public policy.

There is a distinction between an action in affirmance of an illegal contract and where the action proceeds in disaffirmance of such contract. In the first case, such an action can in no instance be maintained, but in the latter, the authorities are in favor of recovering back money paid, where the contract is void as against public policy, if such contract has not been executed and the plaintiff seeks to disaffirm the contract.

When money has been deposited as a wager with the opposite party, it may be recovered back from him at any time before the event has happened upon which the wager was made; and against a stakeholder at any time before the money has been paid to the winner, either before or after the event has transpired, and even where the stakeholder paid the money over to the winner after notice not to do so.

Where the court charged the jury "as to what constitutes a demand, I instruct you that no form of words are necessary to constitute a demand; any words, expressive of prohibition to pay absolutely or conditionally, are sufficient to revoke the authority of the stakeholder to pay it over," Held, no error.

Where the following instruction was asked: "That any demand for the whole bet of one hundred and twenty dollars by plaintiff on defendant is not proof of the demand in plaintiff's complaint," and the court refused to give the same, held, not error.

Gotlieb Buchreinger, app., vs. Sol. King, E. W. Vanderoll and T. J. Creighton, resps., appeal from Benton county; opinion of the circuit court affirmed. Opinion by Watson, J.

SYLLABUS.

1. A description of land in a deed in which the initial point is described as "a stake set for a corner near the road leading past the residence of William Henkle, it being the road leading from Corvallis to the Lloyd settlement," and from which point the boundaries are given by course and distance with certainty, and the whole tract stated to be in Benton county and to contain 100 acres, is not void for uncertainty on the face thereof. Parol evidence is admissible to show the precise location of the stake.

2. An attaching creditor without notice of a prior unrecorded deed of the property attached, made by the debtor in the writ to a third person is not affected by such deed. He is entitled to the same protection as a bona fide purchaser for a valuable consideration would be under the same circumstances by force of section 148 of the code. But notice of such unrecorded deed would affect him to the same extent as it would a subsequent purchase for a valuable consideration. The object of the statute was to place them on an equal footing.

3. Where the reasonable conclusion from all the debtor said to his creditor during a conversation between them prior to the levy of an attachment in favor of the latter, upon the real property of the former, was that the debtor had made some arrangement or bargain for the sale of the property to a third person, but had not made a final disposition of it, nor received the purchase money, and such was the actual impression produced upon the mind of the creditor, Held, not to be sufficient notice of a prior unrecorded deed of such property to a third person, to affect the rights of the creditor under the subsequent levy of his attachment.

Goodman & Brown, appellants, vs. S. T. Northcutt, respondents, appeal from Marion county, cause on trial.

Ordered, that the court take a recess until 2 o'clock P. M.

THURSDAY MORNING, NOV. 3, 1881.

THE WHEAT SUPPLY.

Robert P. Porter, one of the special statisticians of the census bureau, has been making a calculation of the grain shortage of the present year. The results of his inquiries are just published. His tables state the deficiencies of importing countries in comparison or contrast with the surplus of exporting countries. On the wheat crop of the United States the present year, as compared with that of last year, he estimates a total loss of 12,000,000 bushels, and on the corn crop a loss of 600,000,000 bushels, making a total actual loss in cash, estimating at the low prices of a full harvest year, of $262,000,000—a sum equal to the aggregate of all the state debts of the union, to be distributed throughout the country. The shortage of the grain crop in the United States is a most important factor in the condition of the world's market at the present time.

Mr. Porter shows that the consumption of wheat by civilized countries is to-day three times as great as in the eighteenth century. Improved facilities of transportation have also changed the wheat fields, so that wheat grown in the Mississippi valley, in our Pacific states, or in far-off New Zealand is sold as cheap in Europe as that raised on the Don or Danube. "Lagrange," says Mulhall, "boasted, in 1780, that France raised half the wheat of the world; at present she does not produce enough to feed her own population." It is estimated that the world consumes 38,000,000 tons of wheat yearly, and that the wheat lands of the world aggregate 105,000,000 acres, yielding an average of 15 bushels. France will be compelled to import from 65,000,000 to 70,000,000 bushels of wheat before her next harvest, and England from 112,000,000 to 120,000,000. Other countries will require from 60,000,000 to 70,000,000. It is therefore concluded from information in regard to wants that 250,000,000 bushels are figures within the range of the probable requirements, and that of this amount about 150,000,000 bushels will be needed from the United States. It is claimed by some that Russia will be able to supply 100,000,000 bushels, but this is the wildest guessing. It is almost impossible to estimate with an approach to accuracy on Russian crops. Notwithstanding the shortage of the crop of the United States for this year, it is now concluded from all information obtainable that the wheat supply, including that carried over from last year, will be nearly or quite sufficient, with the addition of that furnished by other exporting countries, to fill the demand of importing countries. Of course that demand will be less in the aggregate in a season of high prices than in a season of low prices, because large classes in the old world cannot buy the products of wheat when they go at dear rates, but must resort to cheaper kinds of food. These views receive something like confirmation in the fact that the foreign market is showing weaker tendencies than were anticipated two months ago.

"ASSESSMENT" OF OFFICE-HOLDERS.

Ex-Secretary Schurz, now editor of the New York Evening Post, takes note of the fact that the New York republican state committee has intimated to office-holders in that state that contributions to the campaign "and would be acceptable, and makes it an occasion for telling some plain truths in a plain way. Taking as an example the case of a man who holds a $1600 clerkship, and who was requested to forward $50 to the state committee, he says: "It may be said that a man getting a salary of $1600 can afford to contribute $50 to a campaign fund. In some cases he can, but if he has a large family to support he cannot. We have known clerks of exemplary character and habits who had to borrow at high interest the money necessary for the payment of the high party assessments in a presidential campaign, and who had to struggle for years and submit to all sorts of privations to get rid of their debt. We have known other men who thought themselves justified in making what money they could in their offices to indemnify themselves for the assessments levied upon them for party purposes, and who then drifted from one corrupt act into another. The only principle upon which an honest service can be maintained is that the government is entitled to the best efforts of the public servant for the salary it pays him, and that the public servant is entitled for a faithful performance of his duty to every cent the government pays him as his own money to be disposed of as he chooses. The theory that part of that money paid in the shape of salaries belongs not to the man who earns it, but to a political party, is not only oppressive, but in the highest degree demoralizing to the service."

There appears to be a general impression that the "stalwart" crowd is soon to come to the front in an unmistakable manner, in an attempt to "run things." Blaine's remark that the cabinet, after December, "will be Grant from top to bottom," is merely confirmatory of many indications that the old third term clique are expecting to be in high favor with the administration. Yet there are several considerations which ought to restrain their indecent haste. In the first place, as the Providence Press tersely puts it, they had, during the term of their power under Grant, squandered the popular and electoral majority of the party, lost the control of the house, and set the tide running which gave the democrats a majority in the senate. The "stalwarts" kept the south unsettled and disorderly, and disgusted and alienated the best portion of the voters in the north. Had it not been for the return of the independent voters to the support of the Hayes administration, and for Garfield's nomination, the democrats would have come in with a rush last year. In addition to these general results of the "stalwart" rule, it should not be forgotten that they were squarely and decisively beaten in the Chicago convention. For the second time a national convention emphatically rejected the "stalwart" leadership. The chief of this faction was afterward beaten in the senate, repudiated and condemned at Albany, and himself and his ring were finally sat down upon and remanded to a back seat in the convention of his own state recently held in New York. This is not exactly a record to get up a stalwart boom on. If President Arthur is only a fairly sagacious politician, he must see which way danger lies.

Vanderbilt is using his great railroad power remorselessly. Yet it is shrewdly suspected that his war is waged not so much against rival trunk lines, though they are the present sufferers, as against the canals of the state of New York, which are the necessary complement of the lake system of transportation. The low rates made by Vanderbilt have cut down the canal shipments from Buffalo eastward fully one-half, and have reduced canal earnings correspondingly. It is believed, therefore, that Vanderbilt's chief object has been to drive the canal men out of business by losses, and by this means secure a monopoly of the transportation business for his railroad combination. Commercial journals of New York take this view of the matter. One of them says: "It is only a question of time when the competing policy of the railroads will drive the canals into bankruptcy and abandonment, unless the people come to their rescue with a constitutional amendment declaring them free. The railroads have for several years reduced their grain rates in summer time to the point of no profit, and even of loss, for the express purpose of destroying the canals." The state of New York is therefore urged to make her canals absolutely free, and to support them at her own cost. This situation, forced by Vanderbilt, moves a leading newspaper to remark that "though Vanderbilt may not know it, he is to-day the most eloquent and effective champion in the land of the absolute control of inter-state commerce by the federal government."

An issue has come up at Cincinnati which seems calculated to puzzle the philosophers of the ultra protection school, and even more to embarrass the manufacturers who participate in the advantages which a high tariff gives the privileged classes. The Cincinnati mill-owners, it seems, have been sending to Europe for skilled labor on account of an inadequate supply at home. The workmen now employed protest against this action, and threaten that if the mill owners persist they will organize to strike down the tariff. The Iron Age, representing the home manufacturers, maintains that the draft upon Europe for skilled labor is not in violation of the principles of protection; and the Labor Tribune, representing "home labor," insists that the principle of protection is one sided when a tariff is maintained for the purpose of assuring certain benefits to the manufacturer while free trade in laborers deprives the latter of their supposed benefits under the tariff. The Labor Tribune thereupon gives the following significant warning: "When you strike down wages, then no inducement remains for the workmen to uphold the tariff." This promises to be a very pretty fight.

Two vessels are reported lost at Shoalwater Bay. These vessels were destined for the Columbia river. As yet there is no information to show what circumstances led to these accidents, but we may suppose them due to ignorance of the coast, combined with probable carelessness. It may to be the same sort of blundering that caused the loss of the Fern Glen, and nearly led to the loss of the Kirkwood. In the management of vessels seamanship is a necessary factor, and it can never be safely dispensed with. Good luck will not always avert the consequences of neglect or incapacity.

RECEPTION TO GEN. EATON.

ADDRESS OF WELCOME BY PROMINENT CITIZENS

At Y. M. C. Hall Last Night—Eloquent Response by the Commissioner of Education.

A reception was tendered last night at Y. M. C. A. Hall to Gen. John Eaton, U. S. commissioner of education. The hall was occupied in the early part of the evening by the regular services of the Association. At 8:30 o'clock Gen. Eaton arrived accompanied by Prof. L. J. Powell, state superintendent of public instruction. I. A. Macrum, Esq., opened the exercises with the remark that the reception was intended to be an informal one and that a short recess would be taken in order to give the audience an opportunity to become acquainted with the General. Many ladies and gentlemen in the audience availed themselves of this chance to be introduced. At the suggestion of Mr. Macrum, Dr. G. H. Atkinson was called to the chair. Short addresses of welcome were made by Rev. T. L. Eliot, ex-Governor Gibbs, Dr. A. L. Lindsley, Prof. L. J. Powell and Hon. J. F. Caples—all appropriate and interesting. Gen. Eaton responding said in substance:

Appreciating thoroughly all the kindness I have received, I prize it not more highly than your appreciation of the general subject of education. I have received many kindnesses; facilities for travel in Oregon and much information from your editors, clergymen, lawyers and business men. I have seen your ships, docks and stores, showing the character of your trade and of your people, and railroad and steamboat lines and the towns and villages reached by them. An opportunity has been given me for comparison with a previous visit, and I contrasted the steamer upon which I came from San Francisco. Before there was a bar upon it; there was drunkenness and gambling. Now there is no bar, no gambling, no drunkenness. Before there was comparatively little commerce; now on the river alone there is millions of money. I have noticed many changes. Nothing but has progressed, and there is no better evidence of progress than that there are more school houses, better teachers and a separate officer of state education. I have seen much and heard much of your country, so great, so vast, and the more I see of it the more deeply I feel assured of the permanence and the excellence of your institutions. You have a foundation well laid for material prosperity. In the Willamette valley there will soon be a million people and Portland will have a population of 100,000 in a few years. Look over the history of the movement of population from the old world. In a single year 300,000 emigrated and settled in Kansas, Nebraska and other states. Thinking of your climate and soil, your possibilities for manufactures, resources for agriculture, your fisheries and mines, I recalled New England and asked myself is this to be the Boston of the Pacific coast or Philadelphia. There will be an improvement in civilization the like of which will be hard to equal. You can't be too well prepared by education, neither can the principles of education be too well studied. I see the results of intellectual progress of the people. I see the teacher at the centre, and even the success of the business man may be traced to what the teacher has done for the child.

Laura Bridgman is a wonderful illustration of what education can do. She was a woman with the entire outer world shut out from her. She had no power to help herself and had no faculty left her save touch. A teacher studied her method and reached her soul. Now she reads communications with her friends, thinks beautifully and correctly. The teacher comes to child in place of the parent, in place of the community. The teacher is a public officer in the public school. For what purpose? Not that that child 1, 2 and 3 may be cultured. Accepting the doctrine of the fathers, every soul stands on an equal footing before God, then all must be cultivated. Neglect in this matter vitiates the body politic. This is the old doctrine that came through the fathers, that comes to-day through the social scientist who looks up these topics and their meaning. All must be educated for none can be neglected with safety. A man who labors with his hand is worth twenty-five per cent. more when he can read and write. It is cheaper to educate than to support paupers or punish criminals. It has been a constant source of rejoicing to me, in this sparsely settled country, to see the number of common schools. I rejoice particularly in the interest manifested in educational matters on this coast, and I rejoice at every evidence that American civilization will not suffer in your hands, and I trust that the beneficial influence of American civilization may continue on every hand pure and undefiled.

Rev. Dr. Atkinson thanked the audience for their kind attention throughout the exercises. General Eaton will leave on the Columbia to-day at 10 o'clock.

THE CITY COUNCIL.

Taking Steps to Bring the Street Railroads to Terms.

GEORGE F. TRIBOU REJECTED AS STREET COMMISSIONER.

Orin H. Smith and Felix Martin Confirmed as Policemen—Passage of the Thistle Ordinance—Routine Business, etc.

The city council met in regular session last night, all members and the usual officers present. Mayor Thompson presided.

VETO MESSAGE.

The mayor submitted the following message:

To the Honorable Common Council of the City of Portland—GENTLEMEN: I herewith return to you an ordinance entitled "An ordinance to establish a ferry landing upon lot No. 25 in block No. 318 in Couch's addition to the city of Portland," which passed the common council October 19, 1881, without my approval for the following reasons, to-wit: Lot No. 25 in block No. 318, is private property and the common council has no authority to establish a ferry landing on private property. The county court has jurisdiction over this matter. The owners of lot No. 25 have all the authority at this time to cause the removal of vessels anchored in front of said property, that would be conferred by the passage of this ordinance.

The owners or lessees have the right to grade and make any improvements they may see fit to make on said lot No. 25, it being private property. The effect of the passage of this ordinance would be to make the city a party in defending the rights of the owners or lessees of said lot 25, in which the city has no interest. Respectfully submitted,

D. P. THOMPSON, Mayor.

Sustained by a unanimous vote.

The mayor appointed Orin H. Smith a policeman, in place of Ed. Moody, who failed to qualify; confirmed by a unanimous vote.

The nomination of Felix Martin as policeman, was confirmed by a unanimous vote.

PETITIONS, ETC.

Frank R. Kinkade and others, improvement of North Ninth street between G and H; referred to committee on streets.

Prof. J. S. Smith, asking relief from assessment for Pine street sewer, having paid on Ash; referred to committee on judiciary.

From L. Goldsmith and others, against opening of Twenty-third, Twenty-fourth and Twenty-fifth streets; same reference.

From Perry G. Baker, inclosing bill for $250 70 for work on Fifth street, which the committee on streets refused to endorse, and asking that the bill be referred to committee on judiciary; granted.

REPORTS.

The committee on streets and public property submitted the following:

Your committee on streets and public property, acting under your resolution, have examined the street railway along First street, and find: That said railway has never been completed in accordance with the ordinance authorizing its construction; the track is not laid flush with the pavement, as required by said ordinance, and has been the cause of much damage to vehicles passing along the street.

That the rails used on said railway are not of approved pattern for street railroads, nor are they rails which were ever made for street railways, but are mostly old refuse from railroads. Section 7 of the ordinance authorizing the construction of this railway, provides that the owners of this line shall be required to extend their lines of railway, whenever the graded portion of the street is extended as fast as the grading shall proceed; and section 8 provides that a failure to extend the railway on any street as fast or as far as the said street shall be graded, shall work a forfeiture of all rights and privileges so far as that street is concerned. South First street has been graded far beyond the southern terminus of this railroad for some time.

Your committee therefore recommend that said railroad company be required, within a reasonable time, to comply with the provisions of said ordinance, or that steps be taken to declare its charter forfeited.

Adopted and referred to council committee of the whole.

The nomination of Geo. F. Tribou as superintendent of streets was rejected by the following vote:—Ayes—Hewett, Holman, Honeyman and Raleigh.

Nays—Chittenden, Gerdes, Keller, Kellogg and Nicklin.

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

ASTORIA, Nov. 2.—The British bark G. Broughton, iron, 803 tons, Capt. Clemenishaw, went ashore yesterday at Leadbetter point, Shoalwater bay, and it is dry all round her at low water. She lies in an easy position, and is well sheltered. The crew are aboard. Capt. Clemenishaw arrived here to-night overland and awaits instructions from agents and owners.

The British bark Lammerlaw, iron, 746 tons, Capt. Pringle, sunk six miles north of Shoalwater bay yesterday and is a total wreck. The captain, seriously injured, and the crew were saved, and are now at South Bend. Absence of telegraphic communication prevents getting particulars.

[The Lammerlaw was destined to this port from Newcastle, N. S. W., with full cargo of coal, consigned to Rodgers, Meyer & Co. The Broughton came from Brisbane with 409 tons coal, consigned to Henry Hewett & Co. She is owned by P. Iredale of Liverpool. Competent men will leave here to-day for Shoalwater bay to see what can be done to get the stranded vessel afloat.

THURSDAY MORNING, NOV. 3, 1881.

PACIFIC COAST NEWS.

CALIFORNIA.

Drift from the Pacific.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 2.—From Austra lan files it is learned that the bark Prince Victor was dismasted and foundered 150 miles off Cape Hawke, in a gale. The crew took to boats and after great suffering effected a landing, except two, who died from privation.

Fifty-six pounds of dynamite exploded in the house of a miner at Red Fern, blowing the building to pieces and damaging those near by.

From Honolulu it is learned a signal station in communication with the United States meteorological bureau will be established on volcano Kilauea and a series of observations taken.

San Francisco Items.

Yesterday afternoon the body of a soldier was found hanging to a tree on the Presidio reservation. He had evidently been hanging several weeks.

Last night Mrs. Cora Bernstein, residing in Prospect Place, was burned by an explosion of a coal oil lamp. Her injuries are considered fatal.

Secondary Racing.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 2.—The trot at Oakland park yesterday between two-year-olds, for what are considered secondary animals, between Dandy, Adrian, Sterling and Lillie W., best two in three, was won by Adrian in 2:51 and 2:56.

The Debris Question.

MARYSVILLE, Cal., Nov. 2.—To-day the Appeal will publish an interview with Judge Searls of Nevada City, in which he states that no definite proposition on the Debris question has been framed by miners and that no specific and authoritative one would likely be made unless asked for by framers. Judge Searls is of the opinion that miners will agree to construct at their own expense a stone dam on Yuba river at the mouth of Deer creek, such as recommended by Col. Mendell. They are willing to commence work at once on the dam if the compromise suggested is made. They would not ask as a condition that pending suits be withdrawn, but would require that actions remain in statu quo until the dam or claims are built and approved by the commission.

A Debris Case.

MARYSVILLE, Nov. 2.—By request of Judge Keyser Judge H. A. Mayhew of Tehama presided in the superior court here to-day to hear a motion in the case of the city of Marysville vs. North Bloomfield Gravel Mining Co. et al. George Cadwalader and Judge Craddock appeared for plaintiff. Defendants were not represented. Plaintiff's counsel filed affidavits showing that certain named defendants in the above action had been violating an injunction by Judge Keyser restraining them from suffering debris to flow into Yuba river or tributaries. Judge Mayhew on this showing made an order requiring said defendants to appear in the superior court here on the 25th instant and show cause why they should not be punished for contempt. Defendants named in order are Eureka, Lake and Yuba Canal Co., Boston Mining Co., Milton Mining Co., China Mining Co. and North Bloomfield Mining Co., all operating in Nevada county. The order commands the sheriff of Nevada county to proceed forthwith to the mines of said companies, close them down, shut off the water and keep the same closed down and waters shut off until further order of court. In the case of Eureka, Lake and Yuba Canal Co. the order provides that if R. McMurray, managing agent of said company, cannot be found, sufficient service of order shall consist in posting a copy of the same in a conspicuous place on the mine of said company, and serving a copy on the attorney for said defendant. McMurray has hitherto evaded service of injunction and is now representative in this state of the Eureka Co.

A Murderous Woman.

SAN JOSE, Nov. 2.—Mrs. Ida Gordier of Calaveras valley, a well known equestrienne, was arrested to-day on a charge of assault to murder on complaint of Martin J. Fenton, a farmer. He alleges that on Tuesday afternoon, while passing Gordier's residence, he was accosted by Mrs. Gordier, who asked if it was true he had been making remarks, calling her reputation into question. Receiving an affirmative answer, she fired two shots from a shotgun but without effect. Gordier, her husband, is under arrest for battery on Fenton, growing out of the same affair.

ARIZONA.

The Tombstone Mines.

TOMBSTONE, Nov. 2.—Mining interests are prosperous and the outlook for business bright.

Railroad Notes.

Survey of the Atchinson, Topeka & Santa Fe road from Benson is completed within one mile of town, and the locating engineers go to Sulphur Springs valley to begin location from the east towards Tombstone. The new line from Deming comes through this place, and one branch goes up San Pedro and down Sonora river, and another is now building up Barbacomari to the head of Santa Cruz, thence to Magdalena, Hermosillo and Huachuca.

New Water Works.

The water company is pushing works rapidly on their line, and expect to have pipes laid by January. The Tombstone Water Company is now supplying the town with an abundance of water at half former rates—at half a cent per gallon. They have a pressure of seventy-four feet with an iron reservoir of 110,000 gallons to draw upon.

Afraid of the Cow Boys.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 1.—A Tucson dispatch says trouble is likely to arise from the recent shooting of cowboys by Marshal Earp and posse at Tombstone. Earp to-day telegraphed Gen. Wilcox to send a company of cavalry to protect the town from cowboys. Wilcox referred the matter to Governor Gosper and ordered a company of cavalry at Huachuca to be ready to march if required. Sheriff Behan of Tombstone telegraphs everything is quiet there. Examination of the marshal's posse is going on with closed doors. A large amount of money has been raised to assist the prosecution by friends of the cowboys.

Mexicans Jump an American Mine.

Advices from Altar, Sonora, say Mexicans have taken possession of the San Feliata mine which a company of Americans were working, basing their claim on a technicality. The Americans presented a protest to Gov. Ortiz, who refused to notice it, and put the Mexicans in possession.

NEVADA.

Ignored the Charges.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 2.—A Reno dispatch says the grand jury has ignored all charges growing out of the shooting at the meeting of the Nevada and Oregon Railroad Company.

WASHINGTON TERRITORY.

Fire at Spokan Falls.

SPOKAN FALLS, Nov. 1.—Fire broke out in the roof of Percival & Rue's shingle mill here at 4:30 this morning. Loss $2500; insured for $2000.

Shipping Notes.

SEATTLE, Nov. 2.—The ship majestic, Capt. Hatfield, arrived this morning in tow of the steamer Tacoma. On her trip down she was seven days out, and on the trip up from San Francisco to Port Townsend was under sail five days and 18 hours, and to Seattle 5½ days.

The ship Sumner, just arrived at Tacoma, was 28 days from San Francisco.

The ship Two Brothers, which sailed two weeks ahead of the Majestic, has not yet arrived.

The Majestic will load Seattle coal for San Francisco.

The Mississippi arrived at 2:30 this afternoon, bringing 300 tons of freight and many passengers.

The Dakota arrived at her wharf here about 5 P. M.

BRITISH COLUMBIA.

Victoria Notes.

VICTORIA, Nov. 2.—The Cassiar mines have shut down for the winter. As a rule the miners have done better this year than was expected. One Chinese company took out $4000 in six weeks. A hard winter is expected in the mines. Weather here mild and cloudy.

The Dakota arrived from San Francisco at 8:15 P. M. yesterday.

The bark Ramelijo arrived at noon yesterday, having been twenty days from San Francisco.

THE NORTHWEST.

Eastern Oregon.

The public school at Union contains 80 pupils.

Sixteen hogs, averaging 360 pounds per head, were slaughtered last week at Union.

Butter is 50 cents per pound at Union; hay, from $8 to $9 per ton; wood, $4 per cord.

R. T. Fields, a Union county stock man, sold to an Idaho buyer last week 20 horses at $100 each.

The government surveyor, Mr. Barr, with his corps of six men, has come in from the field. Mr. Barr has sectionized nine townships in eastern Oregon during the past summer.

Western Oregon.

High water compelled the Salem flouring mills to shut down Monday.

The annual state co-operation of the Christian churches of Oregon will take place this year at Amity, commencing on Tuesday, Nov. 8th, and continue four days. Dr. Rowland, of Salem, will deliver a lecture on Tuesday evening. The churches of the Christian denomination in this state will be represented, and the usual exercises of state religious bodies will take place.

Washington Territory.

A new town in Whitman county has been named Pullman. Postal facilities have been applied for and a postmaster recommended.

Foundation for the academy at Cheney has been completed, and material for its construction is being shipped from Portland. It is to be 36x60 feet, two stories high.

The Colfax academy will move into the new building on Nov. 7th. The upper floor will be divided into two rooms, one for primary classes and the other for a general recitation room. The lower floor will be used as the main school room. Miss Lucy Spaulding and Miss Scott Montgomery are to act as assistants to Miss West.

Numerous improvements are being made in and about the Colfax flouring mills. A patent double purifier, for manufacturing the finest flour, is now being placed in position. The bins of the mill now contain about fourteen thousand bushels of wheat, and some three hundred bushels of grain are ground every twenty-four hours. The mill is running nights, days and Sundays.

A petition signed by the people in the western portion of Whitman and Spokan counties has been forwarded to the legislature, asking that body to create a new county to be bounded on the north by the Columbia river and Stevens county, on the east by a line from the mouth of the Palouse river running north to the Columbia, on the south by Snake river, and on the west by the Columbia guide meridian. The new county is to be called either Villard or Billings.

Steps are being taken to establish a fruit cannery in Walla Walla, perfect in all its details. The projectors of the enterprise are men of means who have faith in the paying qualities of the investment. They will send a competent man to California to examine the best canneries there before deciding on a plan of operations. Suitable buildings will be erected and experienced hands employed as foremen, and next year will find Walla Walla canned fruit and vegetables seeking a place in the markets of the world.

Idaho.

The financial statement of Nez Perce county shows a balance of $4187 in the treasury.

A farmer named Evans raised near Lewiston 100 pounds of potatoes from one pound of seed.

James Stevens, tried at Lewiston last week for the murder of J. M. Heddick last May, was acquitted. The jury was out 42 hours and surprised all who had heard the testimony by the verdict.

John Nymeyer, who shot and wounded A. A. Fry in Lewiston a short time since, was on trial acquitted on the plea of insanity. He was subsequently examined as to his sanity and ordered to the asylum for treatment.

A correspondent writing from Four Mile under date of October says: Snow is falling and its white mantle already covers the ground, and the sorrowful faces of those whose crops are not yet gathered are quite numerous. The flax is the largest crop not yet harvested; many acres are not yet cut, and many more are lying in the gravel and being covered with the beautiful snow, and the great query is to know whether it is to lie there till spring. Certain it is, if these persons lose their crops they will not be able to fill their contracts, and will be sadly involved by their failure, and the merchants and tax men will soon be around to gather up what will greatly distress them to meet.

I know that persons who are unfortunate enough to be afflicted by any form of sexual disease have a delicacy in calling upon the proper physician in time, from a sense of modesty and sometimes from ignorance, and permit those diseases to exist until their constitutions become corrupted, their organizations broken down and the hope of future happiness blighted, until death becomes a welcome messenger to carry them out of their miserable existence.

OIL! OIL!

SKIDEGATE OIL!

QUALITY, QUANTITY AND PRICE

Are three great considerations to consumers in the general use of LUBRICANTS. On these we base our claims to the Trade, and confidently advertise.

OIL, from Shark livers is well known to possess very superior lubricating properties, and that manufactured by the Skidegate Oil Company, at their steam works, Queen Charlotte Island, has been tested in competition with Lard, Olive, Gallipoli and Rangoon Oils, and in every instance has proved its superiority. The QUALITY is good, beyond a doubt, a less QUANTITY is required, and the PRICE placed at a rate that is bound to command a large sale, and give satisfaction to the consumer. The Company has numerous testimonials in support of its merits, but to those who have not used it, a fair trial is the best way to test its properties and economical value.

PUT UP IN CASES 10 GALLONS EACH.

Quality, ORDINARY and EXTRA. The EXTRA we maintain is second to none in the world for any class of machinery. Send for circular.
